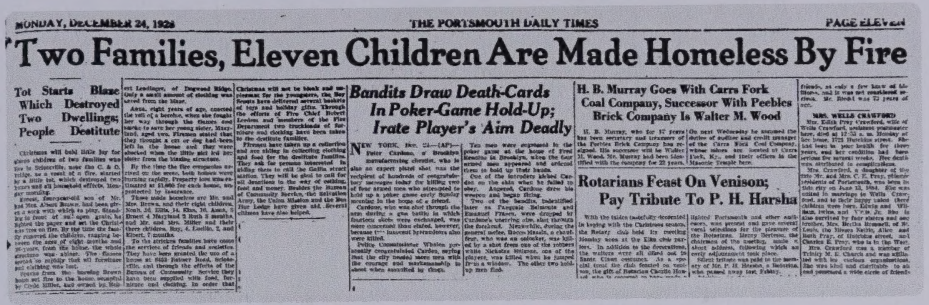
2 families, 11 children are made homeless by fire edited

News article



MONDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1928 THE PORTSMOUTH DAILY TIMES PAGE ELEVEN

Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire

Tot Starts Blaze Which Destroyed Two Dwellings; People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for seven children of two families who live in Sciotoville, near the C. & O. bridge, as a result of a fire, started by a little tot, which destroyed two homes and all household effects, Thursday morning.

Ernest, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stone, while playing at a park with a box of matches, struck a few of the sulphur tipped sticks and set the Christmas tree on fire. By the time the family removed the children, ranging between the ages of eight months and 10 years, from the house, the whole structure was ablaze. The flames spread to another and all furniture and clothing were destroyed.

Following the burning Brown home set fire to the home owned by Cecil Kiffner, and owned by Robert Lentinger, of Dogwood Ridge. Only a small amount of clothing was saved from the blaze.

Anna, eight years of age, carried the tot of a brother, when she fought her way through the flames and smoke to save her young sister. Excepting the clothes they were wearing they brought a cat or dog had been left in the house and they were attacked when the little girl led her sister from the burning structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both homes were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each home, unprotected by insurance.

Three main homeless are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stone and children, Ernest, 4, Mary Ann, 6, Albert, Jr., 8, Ellen, 10, Alice, 12, Ernest 4, Maryland 3, Ruth 2 months, and Mr. and Mrs. Hiffer and their three children, Roy, 4, Estelle, 2, and Elbert, 7 months.

To the citizens families have come the services of friends and societies. They have been greeted, the use of a number of homes have been offered, and through the efforts of the Bureau of Community Service they have been supplied with food, furniture and clothing. In order that Christmas will not be black and unpleasant for the youngsters, the Boy Scouts have delivered several baskets of toys and holiday gifts. Through the efforts of Fire Chief Robert Hall, members of the Fire and Police Department two truckloads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

Persons here taken up a collection and are aiding in collecting clothing and food for the destitute families. They ask for persons interested in aiding them to call Ike Gatlin, at city building, or Mrs. Ruth Hall, at all hours, to the way of cooking, food and money. Besides the Bureau of Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Union Mission and the Boy Scout Lodge have given aid. Several citizens have also helped.

Bandits Draw Death-Cards In Poker-Game Hold-Up; Irate Player's Aim Deadly

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—(AP)—Peter Cardeno, a Brooklyn manufacturing chemist, who is also an expert pistol shot, was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory messages today for killing two of four armed men who attempted to hold up a poker game early Sunday morning, to the hope of a friend.

Cardeno, who was shot through the arm during a gun battle in which fourteen shots were exchanged, was more concerned than elated, however, because his innocent bystanders also were killed.

Police Commissioner Whalen, personally congratulated Cardeno, saying that the city needed more men with the courage and marksmanship he showed when assaulted by thugs.

Two men were supposed to be the poker game at the home of Fred Kessler in Brooklyn, when the four armed men appeared and ordered them to hold up their hands.

Two of the bandits obeyed, but the other two didn't like to be fooled so obey. Instead, Cardeno drew his weapon and began firing.

Two of the bandits, identified later as Pasquale Sclarnia and Emanuel Fiteni, were dropped by Cardeno's shooting eye, shot through the forehead. Meanwhile, during the gunplay, Leo Bacchiocchi, was killed by a shot from one of the robbers, while Nicholas Stirano, one of the players, was killed when he jumped from a window. The other two bandits then fled.

Rotarians Feast On Venison; Pay Tribute To P. H. Harsha

With the tables tastefully decorated in keeping with the Christmas season, the Rotary club held its meeting Monday noon at the Elks club parlors. In addition to the decorations, the visitors were all clad in Santa Claus costumes. Each was provided for the club feasted on venison, the gift of Patrician Cecille Hoe.

Retired Portsmouth and other early citizens, was present and gave several interesting talks on the character of the Rotarians. Henry Bertram, the chairman of the meeting, made a short address, following which an early adjournment was taken.

Mr. Harsha was the guest of honor at the club feast for this reason, as only a few days before he was presented with a fine gold pocket watch by Circle Kiffner, and served by Rob- friends, as only a few days before this, and it was not considered serious. Mr. Hoehl was 72 years of age.

MRS. WELLS CRAWFORD

Mrs. Edith Frey Crawford, wife of Wells Crawford, assistant postmaster at the local office, died at her home, 1721 Sheridan street. She had been in poor health for three years, and her condition had been serious for several weeks. Her death was attributed to complications.

Mrs. Crawford, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Frey, prominent residents of Portsmouth, was born in this city on June 13, 1884. She was united in marriage to Wells Crawford, and to their happy union three children were born, Edwin and Wilbur, twins, and Vern Jr. She is survived by her husband, the three children, Mrs. Martha Brassell, of St. Louis, the Misses Nelda, Alice and Ruth Frey, of Sheridan street, and Charles E. Frey, who is in the West.

Mrs. Crawford was a member of Trinity M. E. Church and was affiliated with the Ladies Auxiliary. She was kind and charitable to all and possessed a wide circle of friends

Second story on fire in home

28 December 1928

In Ye Olden Days news of 24 Years Ago

(From The Times of Dec. 28, 1904)

Berle Cooper, 20, popular South Portsmouth young man, was accidentally shot and killed by a companion while hunting at Buck Hollow, of Highgrove Hill.

The home of Squire Alfred Cooper at McCullough was entirely destroyed by fire.

Charles Zell was chosen as president of the Bricklayers Union.

In appreciation of his organization of the Sunday School and his four years' service as superintendent, W. A. Plummer was presented with a fine gold watch and chain by the Sunday School.

L. L. Burnette, N. & W. fireman, sustained a broken leg when he lost his footing and fell off the engine tank near Circleville.

River City Aerie of Eagles admitted a class of 50 candidates to membership.

Family Grateful For Aid After Home Burned

Albert Brown and family whose home was recently destroyed by fire are very grateful to the firemen and all who helped them during their misfortune. Kind friends and neighbors and other philanthropic people who heard of their sad plight sent donations of money, clothing, groceries and furniture to the stricken family so their Christmas could be made as happy as possible under the circumstances.

Brown, who is a hard-working man is the father of eight children all under sixteen years of age. The firemen and friends are trying to raise enough money to build a little more to replace the one that burned and any who are interested or who want to help in this good work may notify the Gallia street engine house. Any kind of a donation will be acceptable.

Kuhn New President Of B'nai B'rith

Election of officers featured the regular meeting of B'nai B'rith Thursday night at the Jewish Temple. The installation will be held on the second Thursday in January with a grand lodge officer in charge of the ceremonies. A buffet lunch will be served at this meeting.

The election resulted as follows: Louis Levi, member; Sidney Kuhn, president; Henry Atlas, vice-president; Sam Phelps, financial secretary; Sim Capehart, recording secretary; Sidney Bonus, treasurer; Louis Ulick, warden; Harry Korn, guardian; J. E. Brafford, assistant auditor; Archaeplos, Howe Lehman and Fritz Hugo, trustees; Louis Levi, delegate to district grand lodge; William Atlas, alternate. The district grand lodge meeting will be held in Akron in June.

Only Short Detour On Scioto Trail

Local motorists will welcome the announcement that the long detour around the five mile stretch of paving north of Circleville has been reduced to a very short detour that rejoins the Scioto Trail at South Bloomfield. With this detour the trip to Columbus is only about a mile and a half longer than the Trail.

For some distance traffic is being permitted to use the concrete here, the detour beginning at a new bridge over a large creek several miles north of Circleville.

5 SONS IN WAR FROM ONE HOME AT SCIOTOVILLE

Trio Selects Navy, One in Army Air Corps, 4 Out Of States

Five sons in service, four of them overseas, and a ninth boy at home "rarin' to go" is the proud boast of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown of Front st, Scioto-ville.

Three are serving in the U. S. navy, one in the army signal corps, and one in the army air corps, with service records ranging from four to 44 months.

First to enter service was Ernest James Brown, ship fitter third class, who entered the navy in October, 1941, even before Pearl Harbor was attacked. He has had two leaves last October from somewhere in the Atlantic in a period of eight months.

March, 1942, he was aboard a tanker when it was sunk in the Atlantic, and the experience was repeated 15 to next November when another tanker was struck while he was among the crew. The second tanker was not destroyed but had to be brought back to port for repairs.

After November, 1942, Ernest went to school at the naval base in Richmond, Va., and was graduated as a welder. Recently he sailed on a new ship from New York but parents learned, and is home on his high seas.

The second son, Ralph Earl Brown, shipfitter second class, volunteered for navy duty immediately after the Pearl Harbor attempt. After 21 days training at Great Lakes, he was assigned to the great Hawaiian base where he has received further training.

Until seven months ago, he was on duty at the naval air station at Kaneohe Bay on the island of Oahu in the Hawaiian group. Fighting ships and planes. At that time his particular address was changed, and he has not been permitted to write his present location, although he is still in the South Pacific area.

Sgt. Ern E. Brown is the only one of the five still located in the States. He is serving as a "tow-hit wrecker" in the signal corps at Ft. Clark Calif. An instructor in that art there, he expects to be assigned to overseas duty soon. He received his training at Camp Polk La. His wife is with him in California.

Only living member of the family is Cpl. Elza M. Brown, who [illegible] was promoted to the [illegible] rank of sergeant, at his base in [illegible]. A tail gunner on a [illegible] doesn't like to write home about it.

He has been in service for 17 months, having been graduated from Louisiana college, Ark., and receiving training at Orlando, Fla., before going overseas in January of this year.

Front Lewis Brown, the baby in service, went into the navy four months ago and sailed recently from Charleston, S. C., as an LCM. A. Brown 2c, class, he took his training at Little Creek, Va., and is now with an amphibious unit. His wife, Mrs. Hannah Mary Brown, and their four children, reside at 1002 Gallia st.

Boys in Scioto

Seven sons Brown, the two oldest of the five, were born in Kentucky, but the others were born in Scioto. All five attended East High school, where they showed an interest in sports, though only Ralph and Elza made the varsity football and basket ball teams.

Proud of the fact that she has contributed five boys to Uncle

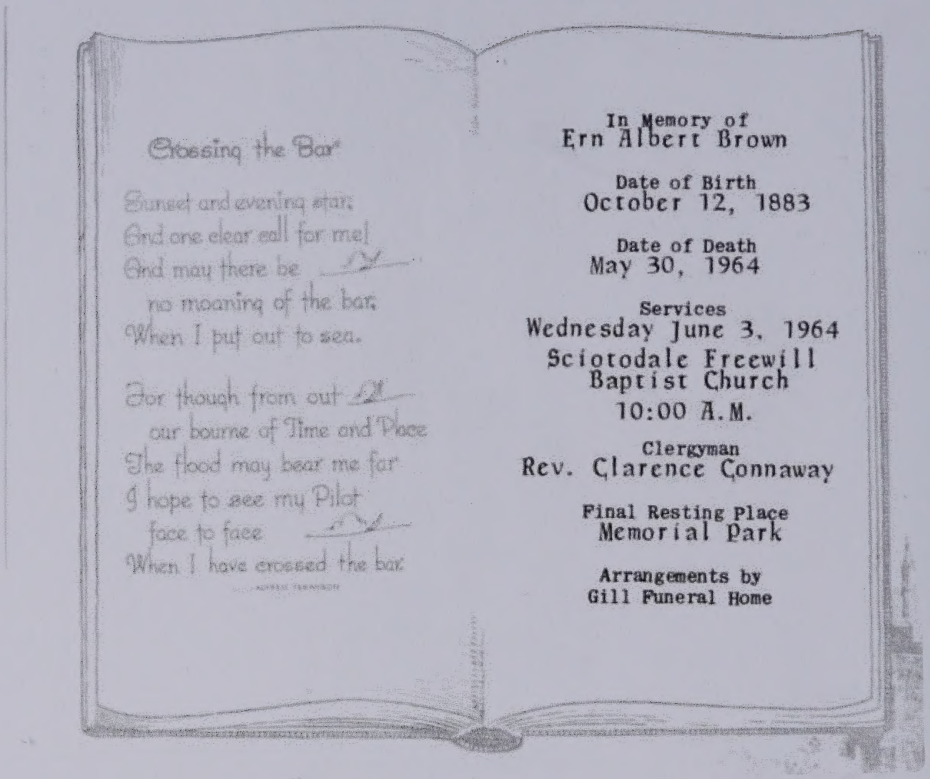
Memory card for his funeral



Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be
no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

For though from out
our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot
face to face
When I have crossed the bar

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star;
And one clear call for me!
And may there be
no moaning of the bar;
When I put out to sea.

For though from out
our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot
face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

"Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire"

Which Destroyed Two Dwellings; People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for eleven children of two families who live in Scioto ville near the C. & O. Bridge, as a result of a fire started by a tot, which destroyed two homes and all household effects, Monday morning.

Ernest, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown had been given a sack with which to play. Standing in front of an open grate he lighted the paper and set the Christmas tree on fire. By the time the family removed the children, ranging between the ages of eight months and 16 years from the house, the whole structure was ablaze. The flames spread so rapidly that all furniture and clothing was lost.

Sparks from the burning Brown home set fire to the house occupied by Clyde Miller , and owned by Robert Leadinger, of Dogwood Ridge. Only a small amount of clothing was saved from the blaze.

Anna, eight years of age, enacted the role of heroine, when she fought her way through the flames and smoke two save her younger sister, Maryland, aged two. Firemen stated they thought a cat or dog had been left in the house and they were shocked when the little girl led her sister from the blazing structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both houses were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each house, unprotected by insurance.

Those made homeless are Mrs. and Mrs. Brown, and their eight children: Noah,10; Ella, 14; Elza, 10; Anna, 8; Ernest, 4; Maryland, 2; Ruth, 8 months and Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their three children: Ray, 4; Lucille, 2, and Elbert, 7 months. "[Not mentioned but likely present was son Ralph Brown who would have been 6 yrs. old] "

To the stricken families have come the services of friends and societies. They have been granted the use of a house at 6453 Bahner Road, Sciotoville and through the efforts of the Bureau of Community service, they have been supplied with food, furniture and clothing. In order that Christmas will not be bleak and unpleasant for the youngsters, the Boy Scouts have delivered several baskets of toy and holiday gifts. Through the effort of Fire Chief Robert Leelon (SP?) and members of the Fire Department two truck loads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

Firemen have taken up a collection and are aiding in collecting clothing and food for the destitute families. They ask for persons interested in aiding them to call the Gallia Street station. They will be glad to call for all donations in the way of clothing, food and money. Besides the Bureau of Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Union Mission and the Ben Our Lodge have given aid. Several citizens have also helped.

Bandits Draw Death-Cards In Poker-Game Hold-Up; Irate Player's Aim Deadly

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—(AP)—Peter Cardone, a Brooklyn manufacturing chemist, who is also an expert pistol shot was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory messages today for killing two of four armed men who attempted to hold up a poker game early Sunday morning in the home of a friend.

Cardone, who was shot through the arm during a gun battle in which fourteen shots were exchanged, was more concerned than elated, however, because two innocent bystanders also were killed.

Police Commissioner Whalen personally congratulated Cardon, saying that the city needed more men with the courage and marksmanship to shoot when assaulted by thugs.

Ten men were engrossed in the poker game at the home of Fred Reading in Brooklyn, when the four armed men appeared and ordered them to hold up their hands.

One of the intruders kicked Cardon on the shin when he failed to obey. Angered, Cardone drew his weapon and began firing.

Two of the bandits, indentified later as Pasquale Belmonte and Emanuel Frasca, were dropped by Cardone's unerring aim, shot through the forehead. Meanwhile, during the general melee, Rocco Masule, a chauffeur, who was an onlooker, was killed by a shot from one of the robbers while Nicholas Bulzone, one of the players, was killed when he jumped from a window. The other two holdup men fled.

H. B. Murray Goes With Carrs Fork Coal Company, Successor With Peebles Brick Company Is Walter M. Wood

H. B. Murray, who for 17 years has been secretary and treasurer of the Peebles Brick Company has resigned. His successor will be Walter M. Wood. Mr. Murray had been identified with the company for 22 years.

On next Wednesday he assumed the duties of auditor and credit manager of the Carrs Fork Coal Company, whose mines are located at Carrs Fork, Ky., and their offices in the Masonic Temple here.

Rotarians Feast On Venison; Pay Tribute To P. H. Harsha

With the tables tastefully decorated in keeping with the Christmas season, the Rotary club held its meeting Monday noon at the Elks club parlors. In addition to the decorations, the waiters were all dilled out in Santa Claus costumes. As a special treat the club feasted on venison, the gift of Rotarian Charlie Hanson, who is reported to have made a lighted Portsmouth and other audiences, was present and gave several vocal selections for the pleasure of the Rotarians. Henry Bertram, the chairman of the meeting, made a short address, following which an early adjournment took place.

Silent tribute was paid to the memory of Mr. P. H. Harsha, a Rotarian, who passed away last Friday.

MRS. WELLS CRAWFORD

Mrs. Edith Pray Crawford, wife of Wells Crawford, assistant postmaster here, died at 12:35 a. m. Monday at her home, 1721 Hutchins street. She had been in poor health for three years, and her condition had been serious for several weeks. Her death was attributed to complications.

Mrs. Crawford, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pray, pioneer residents of Portsmouth, was born in this city on June 13, 1884. She was united in marriage to Wells Crawford, and to their happy union three children were born, Edwin and William, twins, and Wells, Jr. She is also survived by four sisters and one brother, Mrs. Bertha Brownell, of St. Louis, the Misses Nettie, Alice and Ruth Pray, of Hutchins street, and Charles E. Pray, who is in the West.

Mrs. Crawford was a member of Trinity M. E. Church and was affiliated with its various organizations. She was kind and charitable to all and possessed a wide circle of friends

In Ye Olden Days news of 24 Years Ago

(From The Times of Dec. 28, 1904)

Berle Cooper, 20, popular South Portsmouth young man, was accidentally shot and killed by a companion while hunting at Buck Hollow, of Springrille Hill.

The home of Squire Alfred Cooper at McCollough was entirely destroyed by fire.

Charles Zull was chosen as president of the Bricklayers Union.

In appreciation of his organization of the Sunday School and his four years' service as superintendent, W. A. Plummer was presented with a fine gold watch and chain by Unity Sunday School.

L. L. Burnette, N. & W. fireman, sustained a broken leg when he lost his footing and fell off the engine tank near Circleville.

River City Aerie of Eagles admitted a class of 50 candidates to membership.

Family Grateful For Aid After Home Burned

Albert Brown and family whose home was recently destroyed by fire are very grateful to the firemen and all who helped them during their misfortune. Kind friends and neighbors and other philanthropic people who heard of their sad plight sent donations of money, clothing, groceries and furniture to the stricken family so their Christmas could be made as happy as possible under the circumstances.

Brown, who is a hardworking, man is the father of eight children all under sixteen years of age. The firemen and friends are trying to raise enough money to build a little home to replace the one that burned and any who are interested or who want to help in this good work may notify the Gullin street engine house. Any kind of a donation will be acceptable.

Kuhn New President Of B'nai B'rith

Election of officers featured the regular meeting of B'nai B'rith Thursday night at the Jewish Temple. The installation will be held on the second Thursday in January with a grand lodge officer in charge of the ceremonies. A buffet lunch will be served at this meeting.

The election resulted as follows: Louis Levi, monitor; Sidney Kuhn, president; Henry Atlas, vice-president; Sam Slater, financial secretary; Ben Copelun, recording secretary; Sidney Brown, treasurer; Louis Glick, warden; Harry Korp, guardian; J. B. Braffman, assistant monitor; A. Schapiro, Mose Lehman and Felix Haas, trustees; Louis Levi, delegate to district grand lodge; William Atlas, alternate. The district grand lodge meeting will be held in Akron in June.

Only Short Detour On Scioto Trail

Local motorists will welcome the announcement that the long detour around the five mile stretch of paving north of Circleville has been reduced to a very short detour that rejoins the Scioto Trail at South Bloomfield. With this detour the trip to Columbus is only about a mile and a half longer than the Trail.

For some distance traffic is being permitted to use the concrete base, the detour beginning at a new bridge over a large creek several miles north of Circleville.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—(AP)—Peter Cardone, a Brooklyn manufacturing chemist, who is also an expert pistol shot was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory messages today for killing two of four armed men who attempted to hold up a poker game early Sunday morning in the hope of a friend.

Cardone, who was shot through the arm during a gun battle in which fourteen shots were exchanged, was more concerned than elated, however, because two innocent bystanders also were killed.

Police Commissioner Whalen personally congratulated Cardon, saying that the city needed more men with the courage and marksmanship to shoot when assaulted by thugs.

Ten men were engrossed in the poker game at the home of Fred Rendino in Brooklyn, when the four armed men appeared and ordered them to hold up their hands.

One of the intruders kicked Cardon on the shin when he failed to obey. Angered, Cardone drew his weapon and began firing.

Two of the bandits, indentified later as Pasquale Belmonte and Emanuel Fraseo, were dropped by Cardone's unerring aim, shot through the forehead. Meanwhile, during the general melee, Rocco Massie, a chauffeur, who was an onlooker, was killed by a shot from one of the robbers while Nicholas Sulzone, one of the players, was killed when he jumped from a window. The other two holdup men fled.

Rotarians Feast On Venison; Pay Tribute To P. H. Harsha

With the tables tastefully decorated in keping with the Christmas season, the Rotary club held its meeting Monday noon at the Elks club parlors. In addition to the decorations, the waiters were all dked out in Santa Claus costumes. As a special treat the club feasted on venison, the gift of Rotarian Charlie Hauxel, who is reported to have made a wonderful long distance shot in bringing down the game that furnished the "eats." Clem de Brnin, whose fine voice has so often delighted Portsmouth and other audiences, was present and gave several vocal selections for the pleasure of the Rotarians. Henry Bertram, the chairman of the meeting, made a short address, following which an early adjournment took place.

Silent tribute was paid to the memory of Mr. P. H. Harsha, a Rotarian, who passed away last Friday.

Visiting out-of-town guests included Mr. French, of London, England, here on business with the Selby Shoe Company, George Caskey, of Columbus, and W. H. Weiss of Chicago.

MRS. WELLS CRAWFORD

Mrs. Edith Pray Crawford, wife of Wells Crawford, assistant postmaster here, died at 12:35 a. m. Monday at her home, 1721 Hutchins street. She had been in poor health for three years, and her condition had been serious for several weeks. Her death was attributed to complications.

Mrs. Crawford, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pray, pioneer residents of Portsmouth, was born in this city on June 13, 1884. She was united in marriage to Wells Crawford, and to their happy union three children were born, Edwin and William, twins, and Wells, Jr. She is also survived by four sisters and one brother, Mrs. Bertha Brownell, of St. Louis, the Misses Nettie, Alice and Ruth Pray, of Hutchins street, and Charles E. Pray, who is in the West.

Mrs. Crawford was a member of Trinity M. E. Church and was affiliated with its various organizations. She was kind and charitable to all and possessed a wide circle of friends in Portsmouth. She was an ideal mother and wife, and her beautiful home life was an inspiration to others. She put up a courageous battle, but it was not to be and this good woman passed to her final reward with loved ones at her bedside. Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire

Christmas will hold little joy for eleven children of two families in Sciotoville, near the C & O bridge , as a result of a fire started by a little tot, which destroyed two homes, and al household effects Monday morning.

Ernest, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown had been given a sack with which to play. Standing in front of an open grate he lighted the paper and set the Christmas tree on fire. By the time the family moved the children, ranging between the ages of eight months and 16 years, from the house the whole structure was ablaze. The fire spread so rapidly that all furniture and clothing was lost.

Sparks from the burning Brown home set fire to the house occupied by Clyde Miller and owned by Robert Lodinger (sic?) of Dogwood Ridge. Only a small amount of clothing was saved from the blaze.

Anna, eight years of age, [coated?] the roll of a [berolore?sic] , when she fought her way through the flames and smoke to save her young sister, Maryland, aged two. Firemen stated that they though a dog or cat had been left in the house and were shocked when the little girl led her sister from the burning structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both houses were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each house, unprotected by insurance.

Those made homeless are Mr. and Mrs. Brown and their eight children, Noah 10, Ellis 14, Elza 10, Anna 8, Ernest 4, Maryland 2, Ruth 4 months and Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their three children Ray 4, Lucille 2, and Elbert 7 months.

To the strike families have come the services of friends and societies. They have been granted the use of a house at 6453 Bahner Rd. , Sciotoville and through the efforts of the Bureau of Community Service they have been supplied with food, furniture and clothing. In order that Christmas will not be bleak and unpleasant for the children, the Boy Scouts have delivered several baskets of toys and holiday gifts. Through the efforts of Fire Chief, Robert [Leelon sic?] and members of the Fire Department two truck loads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

Firemen have taken up collections for the destitute families. They ask that persons interested in aiding them to call the Gallia St.Station. They will be glad to call for donations in the way of food, clothing or money.Besides the Bureau of Community Services, the Salvation Army, and the Ben Hur Lodge have given aid. Several citizens have also helped.

5 SONS IN WAR FROM ONE HOME AT SCIOTOVILLE

Trio Selects Navy, One In Army Air Corps, 4 Out Of States

Five sons in service, four of them overseas, and a sixth boy at home "rarin' to go" is the proud boast of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown of Front st, Sciotoville.

Three are serving in the U. S. navy, one in the army signal corps, and one in the army air corps, with service records ranging from four to 33 months.

First to enter service was Ernest James Brown, ship fitter, third class, who entered the navy in October, 1941, even before Pearl Harbor was attacked. He has had two tankers lost under him somewhere in the Atlantic in a period of eight months.

In March, 1943, he was aboard a tanker when it was sunk in the Atlantic, and the experience was repeated the next November when another tanker was struck while he was among her crew. The second tanker was not destroyed but had to be brought back to port for repairs.

After November, 1943, Ernest went to school at the naval base in Richmond, Va., and was graduated as a welder. Recently he sailed on a new ship from New York, his parents learned, and is again on the high seas.

The second son, Ralph Earl Brown, shipfitter second class, volunteered for navy duty immediately after the Pearl Harbor disaster. After 21 days training at Great Lakes, he went directly to the great Hawaiian base, where he has received further training.

Until seven months ago, he was on duty at the naval air station at Kaneohe Bay on the island of Oahu in the Hawaiian group, refueling ships and planes. At that time his postoffice address was changed, and he has not been able to tell his parents his exact whereabouts, although he is in action in the South Pacific area.

Sgt. Ern E. Brown is the only one of the five still located in the states. He is serving as a "trouble shooter" in the signal corps at Ft. Ord, Calif. An instructor in first aid there, he expects to be assigned to overseas duty soon. He received his training at Camp Polk, La. His wife is with him in California.

Only flying member of the family is Cpl. Elza M. Brown, who recently was promoted to the rank of sergeant at his base in England. A tail gunner on a B-24 Liberator bomber, Elza has been action over Europe but doesn't like to write home about it.

He has been in service for 17 months, having been graduated from Jonesboro college, Ark., and receiving training at Orlando, Fla., before going overseas in January of this year.

Noah Lewis Brown, the baby in service, went into the navy four months ago and sailed recently from Charleston, S. C., on an LSM. A fireman first class, he took his training at Little Creek, Va., and is now with an amphibious unit. His wife, Mrs. Hanna Mary Brown, and their four children, reside at 6444 Gallia st.

3 Born In Sciotoville

Ernest and Ralph, the two oldest of the five, were born in Kentucky, but the others were born in Sciotoville. All five attended East High school, where they showed an interest in sports, though only Ralph and Elza made the varsity football and basketball teams.

Proud of the fact that she has contributed five boys to Uncle Sam's fighting forces, Mrs. Brown has donated four pints of blood to the Red Cross and is looking forward anxiously to the time when she can say she has given a pint for each.

The father is employed as a track walker for the Norfolk & Western Railway.

The family, which originally consisted of 18 children and the parents, is rather scattered now, with only five left at home. Mrs. Josephine Lang, a daughter, also resides on Front st in Sciotoville. Mrs. Lily Winters lives in Baltimore, Md.

That leaves at home Marilyn, Ruth, Anna, Betty, and 14-year-old Frederick, who is determined to join the navy as soon as possible. The five big brothers would not get ahead of him.

MAN RESCUES 2 FROM OHIO RIVER

Sciotoville Woman, Child Near Victims While In Bathing

Two bathers were rescued from drowning in the Ohio river at Sciotoville Wednesday night by Albert Brown, about 50, of Front street, Sciotoville.

Anna Prince, 23, and Geraldine King, 12, both of Front street, Sciotoville, were wading on a sandbar, near the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway bridge. Both stepped into a deep hole and submerged. Neither could swim.

The King girl submerged three times before she was rescued by Mr. Brown. After taking the girl to safety, Mr. Brown went to aid Miss Prince and caught her as she went down the fourth time.

Rescue squads of Portsmouth and New Boston fire departments administered artificial respiration to Miss Prince and revived her in a few minutes. The King girl ran home before firemen arrived. Ray Elwell, assistant chief of the Portsmouth department, and Thomas Pauley, chief of New Boston department, directed the respiration.

A brother and a sister were rescued from the hole several weeks ago.
